Transformative Practices in Language and Literacy:
Releasing the Power of ERWC 3.0

2020 ERWC LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Keynote Speaker: Vershawn Ashanti Young, Author of Other People’s English: Code-Meshing, Code-Switching, and African American Literacy

Mark your calendars for the 2020 ERWC Leadership Conference! Dr. Vershawn Ashanti Young’s keynote address--"When Turtles Are Teachers and Giraffes Are Students: Towards an Anti-Racist Literacy of Social Justice"—will frame a day of learning about teaching for change. ERWC 3.0 prepares students to take literate action in a changing world. Breakout sessions will examine instructional practices that foster rhetorical and linguistic dexterity and diversity. Conference attendees will hear from teachers who have been using the new modules and mini-modules, get ideas for effective course design, and learn about new resources, including Google Docs of module files. Registration is $50.
